From the number of telephone poles that they have been hauling out south of here the past few days, everybody that lives south of here must be going to put in telephones.

We have been feeling kind of lonesome, feeling that there was something missing. We could not account for it, thought that perhaps it was our liver out of order, but now we know what it is, Ed Warner is out of town. It is his cheery face and melodious voice that we are missing so, that causes that lonesome feeling.

When is the weather clerk going to send us some more winter; here is ground hog day almost here and still the Italian skies are visible and the warm rays of the sun remind us of the Spring time. Now if this continues a few days more, and that ground hog will see his shadow, and if he has to go back into his hole and stay six long weeks more, it will make him sick sure.

There were quite a number of our fellow mortals disappointed Tuesday because they did not get to attend a criminal trial in the Justice court. The trial didn't materialize; prosecuting witness had folded his tent and stolen quietly away. We don't know whether he stole anything more or not, but he surely stole the opportunity of some people to gratify a morbid curiosity, and the case of the state of Kansas vs. Barney Lynch was dismissed.

Georgia Minstrels.

Some way or other it always happens that the judicious advertising succeeds. Judicious means many things. Some people better never advertise. This can be said of many shows. Some attractions better never advertise. Managers who are not honest, whose advertisements mislead and whose shows disappoint—they had better let advertising alone.

The managers of Richards & Pringle's Famous Georgia Minstrels endeavor to advertise nothing but what they can show. They are in a class by themselves, being the only recognized negro minstrels that play the first class theaters and cannot afford to mislead their patrons.

Some show people are careless in their statements. They become so used to writing "biggest," "grandest," "greatest," "best," and "world's largest," that they can only think in superlatives. They mean to be honest, probably are. They are merely careless, and failure is the price of carelessness.

Go to the Gluck Opera House on Monday night, February 5, and judge if the Georgians are over advertised.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

The Physic class took their second examination yesterday.

The advanced German class is now reading Wilhelm Tell by Schiller. This is a very interesting and instructive drama.

The practicing of High Jumping, Pole Vaulting and Shot Putting still goes on and from appearances we will soon have some record breakers.

The H. S. will probably give a Mock Trial in the near future, and as we have much talent in the High School, the trial will no doubt be a great success.

The H. S. has organized two Basket Ball teams, the "Blacks and the Whites", who will play a match game at the rink on Friday evening February 2nd, 1906. These teams have been practicing for some time coached by Prof. Dean, a former K. U. Basket Ball player, and the teams will without doubt play a very good game. This is the first game of the season here and promises to furnish a very large amount of excitement and interest. Everyone should turn out as the prices are only 15 and 25 cents.

FORMER KENTUCKIANS

Invited to Big "Home Coming" Celebration at Louisville June 13-17.

There are extensive arrangements being made in Louisville, Ky. for a big week in June. The event is to be called Home Coming of Kentuckians. Every state is being searched and former Kentuckians are being invited to the "Home Coming." Kansas has 31,364 native born Kentuckians as residents. There are quite a number in Ford county and they will no doubt be interested in the big celebration at Louisville. The dates are June 13 to 17 and it is expected to get a very low railroad rate allowed.

The first day, Wednesday, June 13, be known as Reception and Welcome Day; the second, June 14, as Foster Day; the third, June 15, as Daniel Boone Day; the fourth, June 16, as Greater Kentucky Day, and the fifth, Sunday, June 17, as "Until We Meet Again."

The address of welcome is to be delivered by Henry Watterson, and responded to by David R. Francis, of Missouri. Others on the programme are Wm. Lind say, John G. Carlisle, John M. Harlan, Thos. T. Crittenden, Adlai E. Stevenson, etc.

There will be a civic and military parade on the first day, and every county in the State will establish headquarters in the new Armory, which is the second largest building of the kind in the United States. On Foster Day there will be several events in memory of the author of "My Old Kentucky Home," including the unveiling of a statue of Foster, which will later be cast in bronze and placed in the new Capitol at Frankfort. Daniel Boone Day will be one of the features of the week, during which there will be sewing bees, apple parings, corn huskings and old fashioned dances. The Commercial Club has offered a handsome medal to the person present on Daniel Boone Day who can prove the closest relationship to the great pioneer. On Greater Kentucky Day there will be barbecues, campfires, etc., and orators will be given the opportunity to tell how Kentuckians have helped make other States greater by their having lived in them. On Sunday former Kentuckians will fill all the pulpits in Louisville. Send names and addresses of any former Kentuckians you may know to R. E. Hughes, Secretary Commercial Club, Louisville.
